IN THE LAW SCHOOLS

Barry A. Kozak, director of the elder law programs at The John Marshall Law School, will be a guest presenter at the Third World Congress on Adult Guardianship May 28 to 30 in Washington, D.C.

Kozak will be one of 120 speakers from 21 countries at the program. His topic will be “Judicial Standards and Promising Practices in Limited Guardianships and Court Monitoring.”

Kozak is the American director of the Sino-American Research Center for an Aging Population, a joint collaboration with the East China University of Political Science and Law in Shanghai and John Marshall.
